

Dr. Patricia Nailor

Education

1999 Ed.D. in Educational Leadership, Johnson & Wales University, Providence, RI
[Dissertation: Developing School Counselors as Change Agents for Schools of Tomorrow]

Professional Experience

2006-Pr Consultant with Lady of the Lake Learning Systems, Lincoln, RI
2001-Pr Adjunct Instructor, Providence College, Providence, RI. Teach courses in Comprehensive Developmental School Counseling and Counseling Theories.
2009-2012 Co-Project Director. Elementary and Secondary School Counseling Program Grant (ESSCP), Central Falls, RI Public Schools. Co-directed program that added four new elementary school counselors and implemented a comprehensive elementary counseling program where none had existed.
2000-2006 Director, Office of Counseling and Social Services, Providence (RI) School Department. Provided direction for the effective operation of counseling and social services. Implemented comprehensive developmental school counseling program K-12. Coordinated professional development of counselors and social workers. Supervised staff of 62.
1989-2000 School Counselor, Providence School Department, Providence, RI

Publications

Construct-Based Approach (CBA) Toolkit (Corwin, 2015).
Achieving Excellence in School Counseling through Motivation, Self-Direction, Self-Knowledge and Relationships (Corwin, 2014).

Association Leadership/Membership

ASCA President (2009-2010)
ASCA Vice-President for the North Atlantic Region
Charter Member & First President of Rhode Island School Counselor Association (RISCA)
American School Counselor Association (ASCA)
American Counseling Association (ACA)

Selected Presentations

Program Implementation Tool Selection and Usage as Evidence-Based Practice
Evidence-Based School Counseling Conference, Northern Kentucky University (NKU), 2015.
Measuring Student Outcomes in a Construct-Based Approach to School Counseling
Evidence-Based School Counseling Conference, Northern Kentucky University (NKU), 2015.
Measuring School Counselor Outcomes through Communities of Dialog and Self-Reflection
Evidence-Based School Counseling Conference, NKU, 2014.
"Reframing the Discussion on School Counseling Student Standards." Evidence-Based School Counseling Conference, Northern Kentucky University, March 2013.
"Building an Elementary School Counseling Program from the Ground Up." Evidence-Based School Counseling Conference, Northern Kentucky University, March 2013.
"The Programmatic Approach to School Counseling in the US: From Theory to Practice"
Presentation at International Conference on School Counseling Verona, Italy November 2011.